BPSC Interview

Those who pass the BPSC Main exam will be invited in the “interview” round. A board appointed by the commission interviews each candidate. The main topics covered by the interviewer are listed below.

1. A board that has a record of the applicant’s career and interests from their application form will interview that person.
2. The goal of the interview is to have a board of competent and impartial supervisors to assess the candidate’s fitness for a career in state services.
3. Candidates for the personality interview should be aware of the current events inside and outside their state as well as their academic studies.
4. An interview is a deliberate discussion designed to learn more about the candidate’s mental characteristics and analytical skills.
